University of Alberta

A winter run across campus

The University of Alberta is one of Canada's leading major research intensive universities. Since admitting its first 45 students in 1908, the University has grown into a community the size of a small city with a student, faculty and staff population of close to 40,000. Graduate students have a choice of 75 master's programs and 62 doctoral programs from 75 departments within 15 Faculties.

The University of Alberta has earned an international reputation in such diverse fields as chemistry, diabetes research and Ukrainian studies. It is also highly regarded for its work in rehabilitation medicine, biochemistry, northern studies, drama and English literature. In recent years, our graduating students in medicine and pharmacy have consistently achieved top scores in national examinations.

TOURS

Many University buildings and research facilities are open to the public. Campus tours can be arranged through Public Affairs, 492-2325.

The Students' Union Building is centrally located on campus

STUDENTS' UNION BUILDING

The Students' Union Building (SUB) acts as a venue for a wide array of services, amenities and activities. SUB provides a warm and inviting environment well suited to University students, staff and visitors. This multi-purpose building is a place where people can find student services, entertainment, food and beverages, and retail services. 492-4236.

STUDENTS' ORIENTATION SERVICES

Students' Orientation Services (SORSE) is a Students' Union service that offers a variety of programs for potential students and the general public. Throughout the year SORSE operates the Campus Ambassador program where volunteers provide visitors with extensive campus tours and assist the Registrar's Office with student recruitment. Each summer, 65 trained volunteers conduct informative seminars for new students about the University, student life and campus services. 492-5319.

OBSERVATORY

The astronomical observatory in the Department of Physics is open to the public from September to April. Tours for stargazers are booked a minimum of one week in advance through Public Affairs, 492-2325.

TIMMS CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

The recently opened Timms Centre for the Arts (87 Avenue and 112 Street) offers faculty and staff of the Department of Drama opportunities for training, experimentation and performance. In addition, the Timms Centre is the new home for the department's Studio Theatre. The main theatre features seating for more than 300 and a second playing space can accommodate about 100 people. Current performances, tours or rental information 492-2495.

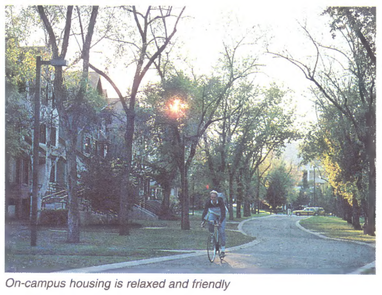
Students study with the help of Canada's largest library collection

STUDIO THEATRE

The University's internationally acclaimed Drama Department includes Studio Theatre which produces and performs five plays annually. The Theatre, now in its new home in the Timms Centre for the Arts, is known for its productions of Edmonton premiers and original works. It attracts a subscription audience and sells more than 10,000 tickets annually. 492-2495.

FAB GALLERY

The Fine Arts Building (FAB) Gallery is the showcase for students and faculty working in the visual arts. The Gallery is open Sundays from 2 to 5pm and Tuesday to Friday 10 to 5pm.



On-campus housing is relaxed and friendly

DEVONIAN BOTANIC GARDEN

The University's Devonian Botanic Garden, located on Highway 60, north of Devon, is about a ten minute drive southwest of West Edmonton Mall. One hundred and ninety acres of gardens and nature trails are open to the public from the beginning of May to the end of September. Exotic butterflies live and breed in lush rainforest foliage in the Butterfly House. The Kurimoto Japanese Garden, the world's largest and most northerly Japanese Garden, was designed by one of Japan's foremost landscape architects, Tadashi Kudo. 987-3054.

MUSEUMS and COLLECTIONS

Many of the University's 40 museums and collections are open to the public during regular University hours. Some exhibits illustrate how collection materials are used in teaching and research while others display the University's vast collections of artifacts, art and other scientific specimens. Museums and Collections Services, 492-5834.

A model poses for a sculpture class

MUSIC

The Department of Music offers concerts, lectures, masterclasses and workshops to suit a wide spectrum of musical tastes. More than 100 concerts are presented in Convocation Hall each year, many of them free of charge. Programs range from solo and chamber music recitals to choral and instrumental extravaganzas and performances by visiting artists such as Maureen Forrester, Boris Berman and Jean-Marie Londeix. 492-3263.

CAMPUS OUTDOOR CENTRE

Located in the northwest corner of the Butterdome, the Outdoor Centre rents outdoor equipment, runs summer adventure camps for youths and adults and offers non-credit instruction. The climbing wall is also available to the public. 492-2767.

A new graduate with future graduates

HUB International offers a variety of services including eateries and variety stores

GLEN SATHER SPORTS MEDICINE CLINIC

For both amateur and professional athletes, the Glen Sather Sports Medicine Clinic offers diagnosis and treatment of sports injuries. Each year the Clinic provides more than 35,000 treatments to members of varsity and professional teams such as the Edmonton Oilers and Edmonton Eskimos, as well as to the public. 492-4752.

SUMMER SPORT CAMPS

The Department of Athletics hosts Summer Sports Camps for students 6 to 19 years. Camps are designed to offer the best possible instruction in a variety of sports while encouraging cooperation, excellence and becoming conduct. 492-3534.

Downtown Edmonton is five minutes away by light rail transit

RICK HANSEN CENTRE

The Rick Hansen Centre is a world leader in fitness, rehabilitation and sport research for adults with disabilities. The Centre provides members with an opportunity to improve Physical fitness and athletic performance. 492-3182.

TENNIS CENTRE

The University of Alberta Tennis Centre is a short bus ride from campus to 121 Street and 51 Avenue. It features nine hard-surfaced courts including four indoor courts and one stadium court. 492-1045.

VARSITY SPORT TEAMS

The University has 16 varsity athletic teams: nine Bears' teams (men) and seven Pandas' teams (women).Women's Panda volleyball boasts a national championship and the Bears basketball and hockey teams have won national titles as well. All home games are open to the public. 492-2327.
